Q - Does the Kings Huntsman's "Master Archer" special rule for regaining Might apply if you kill a Mount which is a Hero (eg Shadowfax)?

A – Yes.

Q - How does Gildor Inglorion's rule for including Lothlorien Warriors work in Road to Rivendell?

A - You may write your list as multiple warbands as normal (in which case Gildor could naturally lead Lothlorien Warriors in his Warband). If you chose to write Road to Rivendell as 1 Warband (as per the army rules in Armies of Lord of the Rings) then you may include Gildor as a 2nd warband. Gildor may lead Lothlorien Warriors in this warband.

Q - What does the Immobilise spell that Gildor Inglorion has do?

A – Treat it as the Transfix Magical Power.

Q - For Matched Play Scenarios that require you to kill the 2nd most expensive hero how does it work with Murin and Drar?

A – You may select either Murin or Drar as your target however you must clearly inform this choice to your opponent.

Army Lists

Q - If you include Ori Champion of Erebor in Reclamation of Moria does his Chronicler rule affect Khazad Dum Heroes?

A - Yes - as Ori (and Oin) gain the Khazad Dum keyword and all friendly models have Khazad Dum Keyword it makes sense his Chronicler would affect them

Q - If a model finds the Treasure in Expedition to the East whilst holding an Objective, Heirloom etc. what happens when they are removed from the board?

A - The Objective Marker, Heirloom etc will be placed on the board in the centre of the where the model's base was

Q - Expedition to the East. For Spoils of War can small scatter terrain pieces be picked (e.g bushes, crates, statues etc)?

A – No. If there is any doubt about what constitutes a valid piece of terrain, then clarify with your TO or use The Most Important Rule on Page 14 of the Rules Manual

Forces of Evil

Profiles

A - A Great Beast of Gorgoroth may not include any Followers in it's warband

Q - Where do you measure from to check if the commander of a Great Beast of Gorgoroth is in range of an objective etc?

A – The feet of the commander model.

A – 1

A – No.

Q - How does the Golden King of Abrakhan's "Lure of Wealth" interact with Brutal Power Attacks (BPAs)?

A - 2b - The Golden King of Abrakhan cannot be targeted by Rend or any other BPA that would cause him direct harm. However other models in the combat may be so long as it does not cause direct harm to the Golden King of Abrakhan (so he may be the Target of a Hurl as this is not direct damage though he may not be hurled himself)

Q - Can A Corsair Reaver hit Grima (who is considered friendly model) with a S3 hit after failing the intelligence test from his Mindless Killers special rule?

Submitted questions not raised to public vote

Q – Can Ashrak lead Spiders in the Moria army list?

No. The GBHL Committee do not feel it is appropriate to over write the non-Legacy Moria army list to answer this.

Q – Can Men at Arms of Dol Amroth be included only in FIEFDOMS Heroes in Defenders of the Pelennor

No. Please read the rules for army building for Defenders of the Pelennor, Men at Arms have the Gondor Keyword.

Q – Should Goroeth have the “End the Race of Men” Special Rule in his profile?

No. This is a clear errata to the profile which the GBHL are not conducting.

Q – Can Expedition to the East take Dwarf Captains in the army list?

No. This is a clear errata to the army list which the GBHL are not conducting.

Q – Can a Corsair Reaver choose to deliberately fail it's Intelligence Test for Mindless Killers?

No. This is a clear errata to the profile which the GBHL are not conducting.

Q – In Assault on Lothlorien do spear supports now benefit from the +1 to wound?

Yes. This is how the rule was written by Games Workshop.

Q - How does Goroeth, Captain of the Morannon's "Come here Maggot" special rule work with interactions like Mighty Blow that deal multiple wounds in one go?

Covered in the Rules already. Mighty blow will only cause 2 wounds on wounds that are not prevented and it is clear “Come here Maggot” prevents the wound being caused like described on page 87 of the main rulebook
